healthful surroundings of an amusement perk, such as Chery Chase Lake, appeal strongly to all persons of refinement. Nature in her most alluring garb extends a welcome to the tired and overheated city dweller. Amusements of a high class are not lacking, however. There is a bowling alley and shooting gallery, and a full section of the famouse Marine Band is on hand every evening, without regard to weather conditions. These musicians supply dance numbers after 9 o'clock, previous to that hour rendering a programme from the artistic bandstand overlooking the lake. Sundays dancing is omitted, a programme of extra length being rendered those evenings.
